

Evaluating the Poznan strategic programme

Technology Executive Committee

15th meeting

1. Mandate
 2. TEC work in 2017
 3. Status of GEF projects
 4. Expected action

1. Mandate

2014. SBI invited TEC to evaluate the Poznan strategic programme with aim of enhancing effectiveness of Technology Mechanism

2015. TEC evaluated the Poznan strategic programme and submitted final report to SBI. TEC noted that projects were in early stages of implementation and therefore difficult to measure impact

2015. SBI thus invited TEC to update evaluation report and submit to SBI in Nov 2017.

Invited TEC to undertake update drawing on mid-term evaluation reports of:

- Climate technology transfer and finance centres
- GEF-4 pilot projects

2016. SBI noted it looked forward to TEC updated evaluation report

2. TEC work in 2017

At its 14th meeting, the TEC:

- Considered terms of reference for updating its evaluation report (see TEC/2017/14/8).
- Noted that GEF 2016 report contained links to three mid-term reports of GEF Poznan projects
- Decided to wait until GEF submitted its 2017 report to COP, to have access to more mid-term reports for updating its evaluation
- Decided to inform SBI 47 on its progress in updating the PSP evaluation

3. Status of projects

GEF 2017 report is now available.

Based on GEF 2016 and 2017 reports to COP:
